IDENTIFIES BODY BY GLOBE PICTURE

Widow of Slain Man Had Not Seen Him for a Year.

Webb City, Mo., July 20.—A photograph reproduced in The Joplin Globe several days ago of C. C. Pendleton, slain in a gun battle at Oronogo on the night of Saturday, July 9, led to Mrs. C. C. Pendleton of Clinton, Okla., identifying the man as her husband.

Mrs. Pendleton made this fact known today when she arrived and claimed the body, which was buried this afternoon in Wild Rose cemetery.

The widow of the slain man told Charles James, city marshal of Oronogo, the man who killed him, that a friend residing in Eureka Springs, Ark., sent her a copy of The Globe as her husband, whom she had not in which the picture was published, and that she readily recognized it seen in nearly a year.

Mrs. Pendleton, it was said, exonerated James of all blame in the killing of her husband. She presented James with a revolver with which her husband was armed on the night of the shooting, but took his gold watch valued at $150, $30 in money and other personal effects with her upon her return to Clinton late this afternoon.

JULY 26 SET FOR ADJOURNMENT

Senate Has Been Through With Work For Ten Days, Says Gray, Who Introduced Resolution.

Jefferson City, Mo., July 20.—A resolution setting noon, July 26, as time for final adjournment of the special session was adopted today by the senate after long debate without a roll call. Senator Gray, Jasper county was the author. He declared the senate practically had been through with its work for the last ten days, adding that "Unless the senate acted the house would spend the summer in session."

Senator Gray said he had talked with at least fifty members of the house who told him that adjournment would be "entirely possible" by July 26, and that if the senate did not adopt an adjournment resolution they had no idea of when the lower body would take up and finally pass upon road legislation.

Sensors Proctor and Casey, Kansas City; Gordon, Clay county, and Bennett, Dallas county, favored the resolution with speeches.

Senator Young, Caldwell county, offered a joint resolution limiting speeches in both branches of the assembly to three minutes and denying any member the privilege of speaking more than twice upon any one subject. This resolution will be taken up for action tomorrow, it was announced. The senate passed a joint house resolution withdrawing a proposed amendment to the constitution to be voted on at the special election, August 2, authorizing the interest on the sixty million dollar state road bond issue to be paid out of the automobile license fund.

This proposed amendment was passed at the last session. The supreme court has decided since that legislature has the right to pay the interest from the automobile fund.

VOTE "YES" ON AUGUST 2

The history of special elections is that about one person in ten votes. That is especially true when the election is not generally considered important. Nevertheless, folks who are against progress invariably can be depended upon to go to the polls. Remember how the pullbacks defeated the bond issue for the new school house? They never were too busy to quit work nor were the roads too muddy. The "no" voter at least is consistent, the "yes" voter is not so dependable. Which are you?

Three propositions are to be voted upon, August 2. The first is for the calling of a constitutional convention. Remember you are not voting for a new constitution, simply for the authorization of a conference where a new constitution will be drafted and submitted to you. Missouri long ago outgrew its present dress, it needs a new one. Vote yes. The second is for the authorization of office holding by women. If the women are intelligent enough to vote they are sufficiently intelligent to hold office. Vote yes. The third proposition corrects the lamentable oversight where the words "and interest" were left out of the 60 million dollar road bond issue. This amendment carried so why should anyone vote no and run the risk of being taxed to pay the interest? The "yes" vote should be unanimous. —Missouri Ruralist.

Your Neighbor's Boy

That boy of your neighbor's will surely win success. In fact he is practicing for success now.

It is a good plan to practice if you want to learn to do any thing well—so this boy is training for success.

His parents know that it costs money to keep this lad in clothes, etc. They find that it is a good scheme to give this expense money to the boy and let him plan how to get the best results with it. If he spends too much one month he feels the pinch during the month that follows.

He's anxious to earn all he can. He thinks before he spends and a neat savings account is growing as further proof of the happy future of the boy.

And a program like that will bring larger success to any one who really desires to win. How about your own boy?

Think it over.

EXAMINE

one of your rugs--

Note how solidly it is woven. You can see how closely the nap is packed together with but minute spaces between. How can much air pass through these spaces? Then how can the grit in its depth be removed by air suction no matter how strong?

This proves that more than air alone is necessary to clean a rug thoroughly.

The rug must be beaten—it must be lifted from the floor and vibrated—to shake out the destructive buried grit. There is no substitute for beating.

Only The Hoover beats rugs besides electrically sweeping and air cleaning them. So only The Hoover cleans completely.
